

Glen Hills Primary School

Emotional Health and Wellbeing Policy

The national criteria states:

"A healthy school ensures that when pupils are unhappy, anxious, disturbed or depressed there are open channels for them to seek or be offered support, without stigma and with appropriate confidentiality. A healthy school actively seeks to promote emotional health and well being and helps pupils to understand their feelings".

At Glen Hills we work towards positive Emotional Health and Wellbeing in the whole of our school community for adults as well as children.

CONTEXT AND RATIONALE

Emotional health and wellbeing promotes school success and improvement by:

- contributing positively to priorities such as enhancing teaching and learning, raising standards, promoting social inclusion and improving behaviour and attendance
